Linking the past with the present and future

Map of Newbury - 1640

Map of Newbury - 1700

The 1700 map of Newbury, Mass. at left was drawn by Sidney Perley (1858-1928). Perley was a lawyer and editor by profession who also pursued a lifelong interest in history and genealogy. He authored numerous books, articles, and town histories, created historic maps for reference, and in 1924 published his masterwork, the three-volume History of Salem, Massachusetts.
